Editor's Note

Sometimes we ran; sometimes we strolled; and sometimes we seemed to sleepwalk. No matter how we approached this destination, the importance is that we arrived with friends, experiences, knowledge and memories. However, as we cross the finish line, we face a new race filled with new obstacles. Whether we pursue these challenges or allow them to pursue us, we know that accomplishment is entirely within our reach. As the innovators of tomorrow, we have the potential and power to use our thoughts and ideas to better the future. Let us convert our hopes for success into reality!

Dear Class of 1997:

Congratulations on your high school graduation!

We have tried to equip you with the best. I hope that you leave here knowing that at all times we were trying to provide you with the best educational experience possible. We hope that you have had an enjoyable and productive high school career.

On behalf of all of the administrators, faculty and staff, I congratulate you. Keep in mind that success will not be instantaneous. I hope that you will always be learning and growing throughout your adult life. Continued success!!!

Sincerely,

Dear Class of 1997:

Six years, one-third of your life has been spent at Randolph Junior/Senior High School. You are the first class to have completed the Junior/Senior High School experience. You began with trepidation, immaturity and perhaps even a little bit of fear. You finish confident and sophisticated. The Class of 1997 is an exceptional group of young men and women.

Congratulations to you and your families on your graduation from Randolph Junior/Senior High School. Your experience of the past six years has given you a solid educational foundation to meet the challenges of the next phase of your lives.

On behalf of the Randolph Junior/Senior High School faculty and administration I would like to thank all of you for your leadership and contributions to our school.

I wish you success in your careers and much happiness in your personal life. Hopefully you will continue to strive for excellence, provide leadership, and use your talents to help others. You will always be remembered as the first class of Randolph Junior/Senior High School.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature of Gerard J. Linehan.

The Senior Class
thanks all of its members
and its Advisors,

Mrs. Ellen Hafin and Mr. Ted Mashirick,
for their support.

We'll meet again at the

and the
REUNIONS!

A Special Message From Our President—

Although it was my first year on the job, I noticed for the first time in four years, an effort by us as a class to come together and have a successful year. Senior year is undoubtedly the most memorable of them all, and it is sad for me to say good-bye to all of the years that have passed. We have all met very special friends at Randolph High School and hopefully, all of those friendships will continue in the future. I would like to thank all of you for helping our senior year become an exciting year. I would also like to spend special thanks to my teachers, advisors, representatives, and officers who helped me throughout my office. I hope to keep in touch with everyone and I wish all the best luck in your future endeavors. Congratulations on a great year!

The African-American Club is a group of young students sharing one common motive: to make RJSHS aware of diversity. This year, students made strides towards their objective of exemplifying the black community and culture. Randolph JSHS is proud of its conscientious young adults.

Amnesty International

Everyday, people can exercise their rights through demonstration and campaigns. We take these rights for granted, but throughout the world, basic human rights are constantly violated. The Randolph chapter of Amnesty International is part of a worldwide organization that fights through letters and peaceful means for people's human rights and the safety of those whose rights have been violated.

Students participating in A.R.T., Aesthetic Restoration Team, devote their time to beautifying the school. Murals are designed and painted in various areas of RJSHS.

Broadcasting

The Morning Broadcasting Team is a group of students who devote their time and effort as messengers of news within Randolph High School. It provides a forum in which useful and necessary information can be transmitted daily throughout the student and faculty population.

l-r: Mrs. Ellis, R. Ellis, J. Holokole, C. Hannigan, K. Truong, S. Golder, D. La Civita, D. Bertoni.

Debate Club

The debate club offers students a chance to express themselves in a simulated debate. It brings the students to a higher level, preparing them for the future. It was revived by Audie Cornish, Chirag Desai, Kent Lam, Ravi Patel, and Mr. Farrar.

I-r: C. Desai, M. Desai, K. Truong, K. Lam, R. Patel.

Environmental Club

I-r: C. Chaung, H. Ho, K. Truong, C. Hannigan, S. Kuang, D. La Civita, S. Golder, B. Poon, R. Ellis, T. Patel, K. Diamond.

The Environmental Club pursues an understanding of the environment and the need to protect it. Under the direction of Ms. Ellis, members at RJSHS actively seek solutions for the pollution of the air, land, and water.

Harvard Model Congress

Top Row l-r: S. Golder, M. Steinhardt, K. Truong, G. Kalergoropoulous. Bottom Row: M. Davidson, D. Stein, J. Raymond, A. Shore, J. Abbott.

Harvard Model Congress is a government simulation which gives students a better view of how the legislative branch works. Students assume the role of legislators and take part in debating, drafting bills, and passing legislation. Participants are required to carry out intense research and expected to attend the forums fully prepared. Students will organize many essential skills which will better prepare them for the future.

International Club

The International Club (which was previously known as the Asian Cultural Club), focuses on educating students about their own respective cultures as well as others which consists of a myriad of magnificence and wonder. The R.I.C. also arranges several field trips such as B.U., B.C., Hull Life Saving Museum, and Nantasket Beach. Every year the International Club organizes an Asian Night which provides the public with a taste of the various cultures.

Library Aides

I-r: P. Menelas, L. Zephyr, D. Dukan, C. Chan, S. Kuang.

Library Aides at RJSHS play an important role in the smooth operation of the Library Media Center. The aides assist peers in finding books and other media, as well as in using library equipment. With the guidance of library specialists Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Murphy, students have helped our LMC maintain its excellent appearance and resourcefulness.

Math Team

The Randolph Math Team emerged with a new generation of freshman and sophomores, but their inexperience proved to be no problem. Under advisors Mr. Turner and Ms. DiMascio, the Team qualified for the state meet for the sixth consecutive year.

Top Row I-r: W. Chin, C. Hannigan, M. Wong, E. Wong, J. Lee, B. Wong, M. Woo. Second Row: M. Levine, S. Golder, J. Prag, S. Kuang, B. Poon, M. Wong, H. Tong, N. Patel. Bottom Row: H. Ho, K. Truong, E. Weiss, C. Hui, M. Kim, C. Luke.

Scholarship, leadership, service and character: these four words describe the qualities of members of the National Honor Society. Members must exhibit scholarship, leadership qualities, and community and school involvement. The Society initiated a recycling project that benefits not only RJSHS but the entire environment as well. N.H.S. also collected donations of canned food, toys, clothes and toiletries for DOVE, a program for battered women.

Blue and White Banner

The Blue and White Banner is the official school newspaper. Its goal is to make the public aware of what is happening in our school. All the articles are written by students and the paper's staff is also entirely made up of students.

Office Aides

Office Aides at RJSHS serve as a means to aid secretaries in their rigorous job of managing the demands of office work. Students perform various duties such as collating papers or helping lost peers find their way. Aides receive half credits for their service.

Peer Leadership

Peer Leadership is made up of many students who serve as role models for seventh and eighth grade students. Each peer leader is put in a group and assigned to teach a junior high class on any issues such as, drugs or alcohol. They are there for the students to ask questions and to talk to if they have a problem. Also, another project the peer leaders take part in is putting on a play for the school which not only teaches a lesson, but also allows the students to have some fun and get some acting experience.

The Robotics Club is one of the newest additions to RJSHS. It offers students the opportunity to learn more about mechanics and the science of building. Students assemble various machines for competition and at the same time learn that there are endless possibilities in the world of robotics.

S.A.D.D.

Every thirty-two seconds, an American is killed by a drunk driver. The members and officers of Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) have taken many steps to be sure that the RHS students and community learn that no party is worth dying for, and that drinking and driving is a deadly game not to be played. Through Contract For Life, Chain of Life, Operation Prom Night and many other innovative programs and displays, we have all become better educated.

Student Alliance

S.A.A.R is about mediating and trying to better our school community. The Students' Alliance is composed of diverse students who would like to stop the violence and racism that occurs in our community and among the students. Every year, the club runs a multicultural fair, which is open to everyone in the school. The fair allows students to share their cultures' similarities and differences, and learn to appreciate what makes each unique.

Student Council is composed of many hardworking and dedicated students who have participated in many activities and conventions. We visit the elementary schools, Christmas carol at the town nursing homes, host blood drives, paint the bathrooms, and take part in many other projects we feel will better the school or community. Of course, we owe much of our success and learning to our advisor, Mr. Powell, who is not only an advisor, but also a friend who always provides us with advice and ideas.

Student School Committee

Representing the student body, the Student School Committee presents important issues concerning RJSHS. The members of the committee meet monthly to discuss ideas for improving the school. These students also ensure that our rights and best interests are protected.

Concert Band

The Randolph Concert Band gained nearly 25 new members this year and showed off its new size and bigger sound at the annual Winter Concert. More importantly, the Band made an award-winning performance at its Music Festivals competition in New York City.

Oracle

The Oracle staff dedicated many long and stressful hours to the creation of the 1997 yearbook. Trying to capture the essence of the class of 1997, the editors focused on the many faces of our diverse and potential class. The possibility of this yearbook is achieved moreover by the support of the business manager, the general staff, and advisor Mrs. Chui.

Editor's Note

The Class of 1997 is a diverse group of independent individuals with different sensibilities. The lack of hesitation to voice opinions and the acceptance of challenges exemplify the splendor of our class. Knowing that everyone has his or her own idea of what a yearbook should be, the oracle staff and I incorporated as many helpful suggestions as possible. We struggled to select a theme reflective of the entire class.

Trying to carry out the spirit of the class, we spent countless hours of meticulous work on each of the one hundred and thirty-six pages of the Oracle to provide vivid images of the essence of the Class of 1997.

Some of you may find this extraordinary and some may think, "Why didn't she just put some more pictures on this page?" Nevertheless, I hope that "Out to Change the World" provides as much of an adventure for everyone else as it has for me.

--The Editor-in-Chief

After going 10-11 last year with a relatively young team, the varsity boys' basketball team had high expectations. We returned four starters and an Atlantic Coast All Star. This year's Devils were led by tri-captains Bob Callahan, Brian Cetrone, and Steve Waite. A very competitive league left the Devils with a disappointing 3-6 start after the first half of the season, but they bounced back in the second half of the season on path to the state tournament.

Alison Bryan dribbles away from a defender.

The Girls' Basketball Team started off slowly with only one win in its first eleven games. However, the Lady Devils later improved in the standings with help from eighth grader Jade Leitas, freshman Jessica Lewis, juniors Indya Mitchel, Stephanie Bonny, and Lil Bryan, and senior co-captains Cindy Woo and Audie Cornish.

Don't just stand there, Amy, go get it!

Hey, pass it to me sometime today!

McCormick takes a shot.

Audie, shootin' the jay!

Someone grab that ball.

We all need a miracle!

Should I shoot it?

Audie with the prayer.

Face-off!

Watch out there.

"ZZZZZ..."

Although the Blue Devil Hockey team came short of a winning season record, the team should be applauded for its outstanding performances in its games each week. Their losses were due to the young team's lack of experience, but look for them to tear up the ice next year as they develop their skills and unleash their potential.

Get over here!

The Girls' Gymnastics Team had another great season this year. Led by senior co-captains Kristin and Jennifer Capasso and State All-Around Champion Lea Strazzulla, the team captured their fourth consecutive Pilgrim Conference League Championship. The girls also set a new school record en route to placing second in the South Sectional Championship held in Northborough. Key contributors to this impressive season include Lori Packard, Angela Hunter, Juliet Menezes, Angela Leroux-Lindsey, Tracy Maple, Carey Strazzulla, Marlo Bryant, and Jillian Ferragamo.

This year, the Randolph Wrestling team continued to bring pride to Randolph Jr./Sr. High School. The team had success in the tournaments despite the lack of wrestlers. Captains Ahmed Ahmed and Andrew Topham were Framingham tournament champions. Captain Tommy Lok and seniors Anthony and Michael Kutchmanich were also strong competitors and contributed to the team's success.

Who's the man?

Tom Lok, about to make a move.

Coach Powell makes final changes before the meet.

The Girls' Winter Track team was young and small in number, but gave competitors a "run" for their money. Captain Kate Sullivan hurdles her way to a new league record and Captain Laura Trull again proved strong in the distance races. Both led the team to close meets with their event wins, garnering all-star, scholastic, and state meet candidacy. Other team scorers include Heidi Morse, Linda Gorman, Wileen Wilkda, Tricia Dobbins, Colleen Veira, and Jessica Veira. The dedication and time of coaches Mr. Powell, Mr. Walsh, and Mr. Karoul were much appreciated. Thank you, everyone, for a good year.

I Remember You

In a distant place
Far away from home
Chasing the wind
I chase my dreams
And only now do I realize
The secrets I've kept
I rue and regret
The words never said
But now that you've left me
The you that belongs
The days seem so long
And the nights even longer
How I cherish the days
The days of us all
From the anger and laughter
To the tears that have gone
I find myself. Standing all alone
Remembering the past
Remembering you.

— Kevin Truong

Memories
Live

A piece of marble, dull and plain,
But wait...
Her sculptor picks up the chisel,
To the ground drop the masks.
Yet no one can disclose the hiding face,
For she appears volatile.
The sculptor keeps shaping his work...
As a magnificent statue emerges.

A Farewell Address from the Editors

While a book is but pages held within a cover, we hope that the Oracle is something more to you. While it cannot capture dreams and memories, a yearbook serves as a reminder of time when we began to take our steps along the way to changing the world.

The yearbook was a great success. I loved being the Business Manager and photographer. Senior year was most enjoyable and I know we will have a book full of memories to cherish.

—Allison Rosa

As Sports Editor, I tried to capture all of the best moments in athletics. Randolph produced some of the greatest athletes and the memories they created will be etched in stone forever. Hope to see you at our reunions!

—Kate Sullivan

High school is over now, but will never be forgotten. I hope that this yearbook will help keep the memories alive for years to come. I know that I shall remember each and every one of you and I can only hope that you will remember me. Until next time . . .

—Samir Zaiter

The Oracle was a most worthy and rewarding undertaking. Though high school is a thing of the past, our memories will not be forgotten. I hope this book will be a reminder of our precious moments and the time we spent — six years, mind you — in Randolph High. Thank you for a great senior year and good luck with the future.

—Maybelle Woo

I would like to give thanks to my family and friends for their love and support, my overworked teachers and advisors for their knowledge, and my cohorts on the yearbook staff for their hard work. You are an incredible bunch. To our class, I wish us all a brilliant future. Life will treat us kind. Keep in touch.

—Kevin Truong

The hours and dedication spent on the yearbook have been the utmost pleasant yet exasperating time this year. I enjoyed every minute of it and would like to thank everyone for their hard work. Extending my deepest regards, I hope all the members of the Class of 1997 will take their potential and drive forth to a positive direction.
